A PLEDGE DELL TO PARENTS COMIC

The Dell Trademark is, and always has been, a positive guarantee that the comic magazine bearing it contains only clean and wholesome entertainment. The Dell code eliminates entirely, rather than regulates, objectionable material. That's why when your child buys a Dell Comic you can be sure it contains only good fun. "DELL COMICS ARE GOOD COMICS" is our only credo and constant goal.

Yogi's favorite pastime is SNOOZING and his favorite sound is LAUGHTER. ANSWERS:

LOOKY THERE- A LOOKOUT BEAR

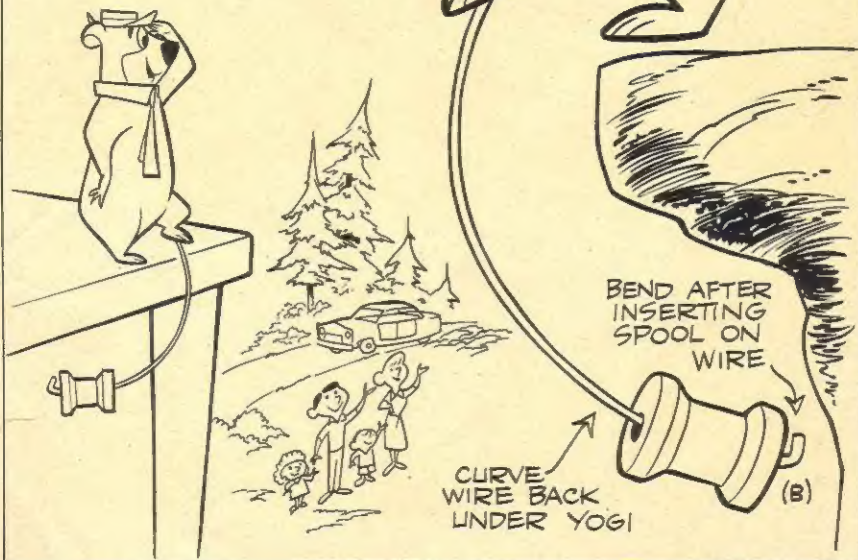

Yogi Bear startles people by balancing close to the edge of rocks. But don't worry, he can stand there all day! To see Yogi in action, trace Fig. 1 onto heavy cardboard and cut it out. Then, ask an adult to cut an 8½" long piece of wire from a clothes hanger and bend it as follows: Bend the tip of one end (A), then slip an empty spool on the other end (B), and bend the tip B to hold the spool in place. Tape end A to Yogi's raised leg, and curve the wire back until the spool is directly under his back leg. Stand Yogi Bear on the edge of a table or anything you choose, and he will "look out" for you indefinitely.

One of Yogi Bear's favorite visitors to Jellystone Park is his pal, Huckleberry Hound. Follow them in this exciting game as you and a friend make your way through the forest, too. First, cut eight, one inch squares of cardboard, and color four yellow and four red. Now, on the yellow squares print the letters YOGI, and on the red squares print the letters HUCK. Cover the names on this page with your squares, decide who is to be YOGI and who is to be Huck, and you are ready to begin. To play, take turns moving the squares, one at a time, in any order or direction, to cross the board and cover the opponents name. Follow the directions as you go, but no jumping. Go to it, and have fun!
